Take back control of your life again

- Purposefully turn off your internet connection during certain days of the week; encourage yourself, friends and family to replace social media time with other activities.
- Ask your company IT person to modify your router settings to automatically implement a policy of no social media websites for more than 30 minutes a day.
- Enforce a no smart phones policy when you go outdoors with your family or friends. All phones stay at home!

Let's do a final vote!
